Alma Mater Welcomes Alumni

Reunions of Jubilee Classes, Dinner Highlight Annual Event

St. Joe's will be wide open to its alumni, June 10, 11, and 12, and the faculty looks forward to welcoming the "old boys" to the campus. The Classes of 1895, 1900, 1905, 1910, 1915, 1920, 1925, 1930, 1935, 1940, and 1945 will be feted at the annual alumni dinner, Sunday evening.

A program of events (all times are Central Daylight Saving) was mailed to each alumnus last week. Alumni are urged to check the return post card, indicating their intentions, and drop it in the mail.

Upon arrival alumni will register at the Business Office at the main entrance to the Administration Building. Supper will be served at 6:00 p. m. in the college cafeteria. The evening hours will be given to informal gatherings in the Rec Hall and reunions of the Jubilee Classes. Clarence Sieben has promised that there will be no shortage of refreshments.

A High Mass for the living alumni will be sung in the College Chapel at 9:00 o'clock Sunday morning. For those alumni who may wish to drive to Collegeville on Sunday morning a low Mass will be celebrated at 11:00 o'clock. Lunch will be served at noon, followed by tours of the campus. For those who have not been back for many years there will be much to see. St. Joseph's has undergone many changes in the past few years; it isn't the same old place.

Alumni vs. Students

Highlight of the afternoon, of course, will be the traditional baseball game between the alumni and students. Xavier Hall is determined to turn the tables on the alumni this year and rack up a victory over the "old timers."

The annual alumni dinner will be served at 5:30. The jubilee classes will occupy special places at the dinner, and a representative of each class will speak for his old classmates. At a brief business meeting following the dinner, the newly-elected officers of the association will be installed.

A get-together and smoker will be held in the Rec Hall in the evening. In past years these evening hours passed informally, visiting with old friends, have more than repaid any inconvenience undergone in coming back to Alma Mater even from great distances.

Monday at 8:00 a. m. there will be a Requiem Mass for the deceased alumni. This will be followed by breakfast in the cafeteria.

Golf Tournament

The annual golf tournament is slated for Monday morning, likewise. Who will be the 1950 tournament winner to join the company of Edward Purcell (1947), Rev. Harry Schaeffer (1948), and Rev. Norman Heckman (1949)? Father Marcellus Dreiling is in charge of arrangements for the tournament and he has asked CONTACT! to remind contenders to bring their golf clubs with them.

Three full days have been arranged for the alumni. Alma Mater welcomes you!

O'Brien Stars In "Emperor Jones"

The most powerful and moving drama enacted on the stage of the College Theatre for the past several years was provided last Sunday and Monday evenings when the Columbian Players, under the direction of Mr. Ralph Cappuccilli, presented "Emperor Jones."

The central character of the drama is a negro, Brutus Jones, portrayed by Jack O'Brien, whose performance held the audience completely for the last seven scenes.

The play saw the man, Brutus Jones, as the symbol of all men, showing especially their raw ignorance and hysterical fear beneath layers of acquired intelligence. Jones is inordinately proud of his mind; he brags of the craft by which he is able to win control of the little West Indian island he rules, and he brags of the courage which his rationalism gives him. But the emperor contains within himself his own dramatic and emotional assassin whose gradual influence makes the story of the play.

The drama was little more than a monologue in eight short scenes, but the emotional impact was extremely strong. With each scene the feeling grew until the seventh, when the emperor reverted to his savage self, offered to the gods by a witch doctor in a weird Congo dance.

O'Brien portrayed the character excellently. His build-up of emotion and fear from scene to scene was done smoothly and powerfully.

Audience reaction was slow in coming because of the stiffness and jerkiness in the first scene, but the action in the following scenes was strong enough to override that fault.

O'Brien was supported by a fine cast. Mr. Ralph Cappuccilli as Smithers, a scheming, sly Englishman, was excellent. The savage dance of the witch doctor, Frank Pavalko, in the seventh-scene climax, brought the play to its highest point of emotion. The performances of Jack Cummings, who did double duty as Jeff the Pullman porter and Lem, the old native whose warriors killed the emperor, and that of Bob Gregoire as auctioneer were creditably done.

The acting was blended with fine stage effects and the constant, ever-increasing tempo of the natives' drums to add the touch of realism that enriched the whole play.

Jack O'Brien's excellent characterization of Brutus Jones will make "Emperor Jones" the most highly regarded play to appear at St. Joseph's in many years.

Puma Band Gives Spring Musicale

Last evening in the College Theatre the annual Spring Musicale was presented by the College Band, under the direction of Prof. Paul Tonner.

The program opened with the band playing Sousa's "Glory to the Yankee Navy," followed by Massenet's Overture, "Phedre." Five soloists highlighted the program. Prof. Tonner, as piano soloist, played "Allegro Appassionato," by Saint-Saens, and Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody, No. 8." Lou White soloed on the tuba in Hayes' "Pomposo," and Leo Tonner on the saxophone in one of his father's compositions, "Valse Caprice." Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Connor were featured on the flute and violin, respectively, the former playing the Allegro from Mozart's "Concerto, No. 1" and Debussy's "Reverie," and Mrs. Connor, the Allegro and Andante from Bruch's "Concerto in G minor," and Gardner's "Canebreak."

The Concert Band concluded the evening's entertainment with Lecuora's "Cordoba" from the Suite Espagnole, and the novelty, "Ten Little Indians," by Long.

Braithwaite Chosen Yearbook Editor

An organizational meeting of the 1951 PHASE staff will be held this week to discuss the theme to be used in the yearbook which will commemorate the sixtieth anniversary of the founding of St. Joseph's. Bob Braithwaite, Chicago senior, will be editor of the anniversary number. Associate editors and business managers have not yet been chosen.

Commencement for 80 Men With Baccalaureate High Mass

Sunday, June 4, will be commencement day for 80 St. Joseph's seniors. The largest class in the history of the school will receive diplomas that day.

Cast Ballots for Alumni Officers

Ballots carrying a slate of candidates for the offices of president, 1st vice president, 2nd vice president and for membership on the Board of Directors of St. Joseph's College Alumni Association have been mailed to those alumni who have made a contribution to the association during the current year.

Following are the names submitted:

For President

Mr. Clarence M. Sieben, '23
Rev. Frederick J. Westendorf, '27

For 1st Vice President

Mr. Frederick H. Steininger, '38
Mr. A. Lincoln Piotrowski, '43

For 2nd Vice President

Mr. Bernard F. Sutton, '35
Mr. James S. Fitzmaurice, '40

For Board of Directors

(Three-year Term)
Mr. John A. Metzner, '12
Mr. Carl B. Neizer, '18
Mr. Joseph H. Hoefler, '23
Mr. Thomas A. Neff, '24
Mr. Arthur G. Mossong, '25
Rev. Louis G. Duray, '31
Rev. Joseph A. Lenk, '33
Mr. Richard M. Scheiber, '41
Dr. Frank Benchik, '42

Results of the balloting will be announced at the alumni dinner on Sunday, June 11. It is expected that the newly-elected officers will be installed at that time.

Graduation activities will begin at 10:30 in the morning with an academic procession of the faculty and graduates to the College Chapel for the celebration of the baccalaureate High Mass.

At 2:00 p. m. the College Theatre will be the scene of the graduation exercises. The Rt. Rev. Clarence G. Isenmann, S.T.D., Ph.L., Jour. D., an alumnus of St. Joseph's, and now Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, will address the graduates. The Rev. Walter T. Pax, dean of the college, will present the graduates for their diplomas.

Mr. Thomas Medland, Logansport architect and president of St. Joseph's Alumni Association, will head a group of alumni executive officers and formally receive the graduates into the association.

Father G. Esser Builds Church

The Rev. Gilbert Esser, C.P.P.S., local professor of Latin and pastor of St. Henry's church, in Medaryville, will soon have a new church. The excavation has been completed and the new building is under construction.

The new St. Henry's will replace an 82-year-old building still used for services in Medaryville.

Father Esser has long been doing Sunday work at St. Henry's, and he assumed full charge of the parish in December, 1948. He is also pastor of St. Francis' church in Francesville.

Where Are the 3,350?

Contributions to the Alumni Foundation is of the utmost importance to our alma mater if she is to assist Catholic young men to obtain a Catholic education. Many young boys leaving high school next month will be unable to attend a Catholic college in September unless we help them. Your Alumni Foundation affords you an avenue to assist in this worthy cause.

As stated by our National President in his appeal to us in April we alumni of Saint Joseph's can do our part with gifts to the Living Endowment, regardless of the amount we may give. A small contribution from each alumnus is better than larger contributions from a few. The feeling of participating in such a program should appeal to every alumnus. The accent, this year, is on small gifts by the greatest number, although it goes without saying that the Foundation is more than happy to receive larger gifts.

As CONTACT! goes to press, 150 of our 3,500 alumni have responded to the April appeal to the tune of $2214.50 in cash and pledges, or an average individual gift of $14.76. The question is how can we reach the other 3,350 alumni? We hope they will read these lines and be reminded that they have not yet sent their contributions.

The total sum of $2214.50 in the 1950 drive has been contributed as follows:

Criminology Class Visits State Pen

The criminology class of St. Joseph's under the direction of the Rev. Joseph Scheuer, made a field trip to Michigan City, Ind., last Friday, to inspect the Indiana State penitentiary. Fourteen students made the trip, seeing all phases of prison operation.

Plans are being formulated to have the Sociology classes make periodic visits to the penal institution.

Local Professor Is Holy Year Pilgrim

The Rev. Joseph A. Hiller, professor at St. Joseph's and diocesan director of the Displaced Persons rehabilitation program, left last Wednesday on the first leg of a journey to Rome, on a Holy Year Pilgrimage.

Father Hiller, with the Rev. Rufus Esser, professor of English, celebrated the silver jubilee of his ordination on April 26.

The Rev. Joseph Smolar, biology instructor, will handle all D. P.

Prom a Success; Anna Mae Kelleher Crowned Queen

More than 160 couples, one of the largest crowds on record, attended the 1950 Junior-Senior Prom last Saturday evening, and witnessed the crowning of Miss Anna Mae Kelleher, of Chicago, as Queen of the Prom.

Held in the college field house, redecorated for the occasion, the dance featured the music of Gay Claridge and his band. Under the direction of Mike Lehnerd, prom chairman, the gymnasium was decorated by Ernie Stockman, who followed a nautical theme. Basketball uprights were converted into portholed bulkheads, and the space between the dance floor and the approach from the main court, occupied by a tank of salt water, was spanned by a bridge. Couples entering were "logged in" by the officer of the deck, and waiters who served refreshments were attired in navy "whites."

One of the highlights of the evening was the crowning of the Prom Queen, Miss Anna Mae Kelleher, who was escorted by senior Bob Horky. Members of her court, runners-up in the STUFF-sponsored Queen Contest, were Misses Sunny Beisler, Louisville, Ky.; Judy Childs, Kokomo, Ind.; Pat Grimm, Peoria, Ill.; and Mary Lou Loeber, Chicago. Utah Cummings, editor of STUFF, placed the coronal wreath on the Queen's head, and presented gifts to her and her attendants. All five girls were the recipients of bouquets of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scharf, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Connor, and Mr. and Mrs. Steven Theodosius served as hosts and hostesses for the evening.

Stroke Fatal to Buffalo Grad

Joseph Boland, '08, supervisor of the Buffalo Division of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, died six weeks ago in Buffalo, following a brief illness.

Details of his illness and death were sent to CONTACT! by his sister. Joe had taken a plane trip to Scranton the previous week and took a severe cold on the plane. He was recovering from the cold when he suffered a stroke and died the next day.

A Solemn Requiem Mass was sung in St. Joseph's Old Cathedral, Buffalo. Interment took place at Port Allegany, Pa.

Joe is survived by four sisters. May his soul rest in peace!

Gabriel Guild to Work With Press Commission

Unless you're from the Windy City, chances are that you have never heard of the Gabriel Guild. Actually, the Chicago organization is one of many similar groups acting in almost every metropolitan area.

The Gabriel Guild comprises all Catholic journalists, radio and television personnel, advertising and public relations people, in the secular world. It is a phase of "the specialized Apostolate" so highly esteemed by the Sovereign Pontiffs and American hierarchy. The Chicago local has over 100 members, including some interesting "higher-ups" from the Chicago Daily News, the Herald-American, and sundry Chicago radio stations and advertising agencies.

John W. Lynch, chairman, and Rev. Joseph F. Scheuer, moderator of the National Press Commission, recently met with this group. Their idea is to form a working plan whereby the Gabriel Guild and the N. P. C., at least in its Chicago and Fort Wayne regional aspects, can work together.

Alumni Quickies

The Senior Class of St. Mary's High School, Sandusky, Ohio, commemorated the school's undefeated season in basketball by presenting the coach and Father Joseph I. Hartmann, '28, a trophy recently. Father Hartmann is Principal at St. Mary's . . . Edward Fischer, '34, of the Department of Journalism of Notre Dame University, will conduct a special journalism course for high school publication moderators during the 1950 summer session . . . Working as office manager for the Linco Products Co. of Chicago should be a quiet life for Andre C. Mongeau, ex'44, who visited the campus recently. Many alumni will remember hearing Ted Malone's Westinghouse program from overseas, Jan. 10, 1945, in which Andre was featured for a 20-mile infiltration trek through German lines to safety with the American forces in eastern Belgium . . . A major in Dairy Technology at the University of Illinois, James Schmitt, ex'46, who earned the handle "horse," lately showed heels to the field and came in first in the race for President of the Theta Kappa Phi Fraternity. He will graduate in 1951 . . . Academy grad, Howard "Doc" Spresser, '44, is majoring in Bacteriology at Illinois, and is a member of the Sigma Phi Epsilon . . . Hearty congratulations are in order from CONTACT! to the nine members of the class of 1946 who were ordained priests in the Society of the Precious Blood on the Feast of the Ascension. They are: Fathers Dominic Gerlach, Donald Green, Alvin Herber, Richard Kissner, Roman Rodak, Ambrose Ruschau, William Schenk, William Volk, and Raymond Zupkie . . . Radio and television fans of the future may owe thanks to Thomas T. Taylor, ex'42, for the work he has done on inventing a new device known as a Potential Analogue Computer, an improvement on antennae. T. T. is a research physicist with the Hughes Aircraft Company at Culver City, Calif., and will be remembered by alumni of his years as the chap who liked to gather up small wheels and put them together to form some sort of machine, the like of which he had never seen . . . Joseph M. Boland, '08, who died a few weeks ago at Buffalo, N. Y. will long be remembered by Athletic Director, Rev. Edward Roof, '24, to whom Joe left a donation for the Stadium Fund and related the tale of how he had trod the streets of Chicago in his football gunboats in the fall of 1907 because a pair of new shoes made Joe's dogs howl too loud . . . Rev. Marcellus Dreiling, '30, St. Joseph's golf coach, the team, and Brother David Schneider, '99, were guests of Charles Fromer, '24, at Attica, Indiana, on a recent outing . . . CONTACT! is happy to congratulate the six Sanguinist Fathers of the class of '19 who are this year observing the Silver Anniversary of their ordination. Of the six, Rev. Joseph H. Hiller, and Rev. Rufus H. Esser, are professors at Collegeville. Rev. George Niekamp, is pastor at Immaculate Conception church, Butternut, Wis., Rev. Joseph Raible, is pastor of St. Anthony's, Detroit, Mich., Rev. Thomas Ryan, is rector of the Precious Blood Mission House, at New Cumberland, Pa., and Rev. Edward Vonder Haar, is pastor at St. Anthony's, Park Falls, Wis. . . . Thomas E. Delaney, '05, died April 1 at Chicago, Ill. During his student days Thomas was a resident of nearby Delphi, Ind., but has spent much of his life in Chicago . . . Robert Conley, Jr., '41, is already getting to be quite a gavel swinger. In a recent election of the Rensselaer Junior Chamber of Commerce, Junior came out as president. The former Puma griddier is presently following a career in one of the city's Banks . . . The alumni office has been informed of the tragic death of Patrick Thomas, Academy '49, following an automobile-tractor accident on May 13. Patrick had taken his first two years of high school work at St. Joseph's Academy, and was a Notre Dame University freshman at the time of the fatal accident . . . May 18 was the anniversary of a famous K of C initiation at Rensselaer in which nearly the entire class was made up of St. Joseph's students in 1924. The initiating team had a hot time as the Revs. Albin Ratterman, '24, Philip Rose, '24, and Marcus Vogel, '24, took turns banging against the "hot room" door. Ted Liebert, '24, had some good tackling practice on the door knob. It is avowed that Francis "Fat" Buckley, '24, lost 10 pounds, more than he ever lost under the "blood in the eye" days of Coach Radican. One of the specialties on the banquet menu was strawberry fluff, and it is claimed that Pete Heimes, '15, College Infirmary, had a "rushing" business that night . . . Joseph H. Reinman, '43, was married on May 20 to Miss Jane O'Connor, Grosse Point Farms, Mich., at St. Paul's church. Joe is now Assistant Sanitation Officer of the Sandusky County (Ohio) health department . . . Illness is forcing Rev. Kenneth Seberger, '42 to return from Sanguinist Missions in Chile, South America, to which he had gone last summer . . . Vincent J. Giese, '45, is the author of the excellent article, "Meditation for Catholic Journalists," which appears in the March issue of "The Catholic School Editor," a quarterly publication of the Catholic School Press Association.

INTRAMURALS

St. Joe's intramural softball season wound up its 1950 stand last week with the winning teams in the two leagues showing no-loss scores. The "Dirty Sox" came out on top of eight-team competition in the 16-inch league, while Joe Moore's "Peaceful Greeks" won their way to laurels in the nine-team 12-inch league.

The "Dirty Sox" won seven games, with no losses and no ties, for the 16-inch title. Runners up were the "Pioneers," with six wins racked up against one loss, and "Southern Yankees," with four victories and three losses.

The "Peaceful Greeks," with seven and none, had to beat the "Whiz Kids," who scored a very close second with seven wins and one loss, for the 12-inch league title. Third place winners in the small ball competition were the "Herd-o'-Turtles," with six and two.

Pitcher Dan McDevitt, who hurled the "Peaceful Greeks" to their crown this year, finished his fourth year of intramural playing and consistent winning with the no-loss card.

Pitching steadily from frosh to senior year, McDevitt lost only two games. He hurled nine no-hitters during his college intramural career, making one of the blank-outs in the '49-'50 season.

Pumas Upset Chicago; Bohney Hurls 9-4 Win

St. Joe took their fourth straight baseball victory and brought their record to .500 with an upset over the University of Chicago, May 13. Chicago had previously beaten the Notre Dame nine.

Cy Bohney went all the way for the 9-4 win and effectively scattered nine Maroon hits in the fog.

The Pumas were never headed in the game, scoring the first run in the second when John Barrientos walked, and Bob Doyle and Gene Ziemba hit successive singles.

In the third Clarence Kuhn singled and Tom Quinn walked, both scoring on Barrientos' triple after two were out.

After Boyd Reutebuch and Gerry Leahy walked in the seventh, Keller Riede's single filled the bases. Kuhn then laid down a bunt which scored both Reutebuch and Leahy on a squeeze play. Tom Quinn drove in Riede with a single.

Two runs were scored in the eighth when Ziemba and Bohney singled. Ziemba stole home and Bohney scored on an infield out.

Another run was added by the

Beat Wesleyan, 6-2 With 3 Double Plays; Gorman Goes Route

Using three fast double plays in the process, Coach Dick Scharf's nine defeated a well-regarded Illinois Wesleyan team here May 10, 6-2.

Pitcher Charlie Gorman went the route in taking both his and the Pumas' third win of the year.

The first of the Pumas' three double plays came in the first inning after second baseman Tony Saliture hit Gorman's first pitch for a sharp single. With two outs, however, the Titans netted two runs on two singles and a double.

In the Puma half of the first Gerry Leahy led off with a single, advanced on a hit by Wally Moore, and scored on an error.

In the fifth St. Joe went ahead by scoring a pair of runs. Leahy started matters again, this time with a double, Keller Riede walked and catcher Tom Quinn drove them both in with a double.

Wesleyan pitcher Dick Eichelberg was knocked from the mound in the seventh when two hits, a Titan error, and a base-clearing double by first-baseman Clarence Kuhn gave the Puma nine three runs.

Golfers Place Sixth In 10-School Meet

St. Joseph's golfers placed sixth in the 10-school Indiana Little State golf meet held last Friday at Terre Haute. Butler University of Indianapolis walked off with highest honors for the second year in a row.

Butler copped the 1950 tournament by posting up a 591 score. Valparaiso University placed second with 621, and Indiana State came in third with a score of 630.

Other scores at the event were: Wabash 636; Evansville, 645; St. Joseph's, 648; Indiana Tech, 654; DePauw, 660; Tri-State, 686; and Ball State, 692.

Ed Cavanagh was the best individual St. Joe scorer, going around the 36 holes of the par-70 course in 157. Miller and McNerny each used 163 strokes for the circuit, and Charlie Gerst scored 165.

Coach Cosgrove Resigns As Puma Basketball Mentor

Chicago Downs Pumas On Balk, Five Errors

Cy Bohney pitched seven shut-out innings against Chicago University, May 18, before the Pumas' defense weakened in the eighth, enabling the Maroons to score six runs and eventually to win, 7-4.

The loss broke a five-game St. Joe winning streak, and marked their first loss on the home diamond for the year. It also evened the Pumas' record with six wins and a like number of losses.

After holding a seemingly comfortable lead going into the eighth at 4-0, the sky fell in on Coach Dick Scharf's nine. The Chicagoans crossed the plate six times in the hectic eighth on a balk, three hits, and five errors. A home run in the ninth added one more marker for the Maroons.

The Pumas opened the first inning with consecutive doubles by Gerry Leahy and John Barrientos to give them the first run of the game. In the third they added two more counters on Barrientos' single, a triple by Clarence Kuhn, and a one-bagger by Reid Mackin. The final run came in the sixth when Ziemba walked, advanced on an infield out, and scored on a single by Kuhn.

St. Joe outlit the Maroons 11-8, but five errors bunched in one inning proved costly; and the Chicagoans played without a miscue in the field. Five days previous to this encounter the Pumas won against the same Chicago nine behind Bohney's pitching, 9-4.

Pumas Rap Wabash In Saturday Tilt

A ninth-inning rally that resulted in two runs gave the St. Joe Pumas their seventh win of the baseball season last Saturday afternoon, when they downed Wabash college, 8-7. Southpaw Don Tesmond was the winning hurler.

The game got off to a weird start as the first six Puma batters got on base on balls. Two wild pitches, two balks, and a passed ball all contributed to the five runs St. Joe scored that inning. There were no hits.

With two men out in the third stanza, Wabash scored four runs, three of them on centerfielder Roman's homer. Wabash went ahead, 6 to 5 in the fifth, on a hit, a walk, and a triple by the slugger Roman.

Tom Quinn struck out to open the Puma half of the sixth inning, but the catcher dropped the third strike, and then over-threw first base trying to nail Quinn, who ended up on second. He scored on Bob Doyle's single.

Wabash scored one in the eighth on two Puma errors and a double. St. Joe went scoreless in the eighth as did Wabash in their half of the ninth inning.

With one out in the Pumas' ninth, Bob Doyle singled and Boyd Reutebuch got a ground-rule double, putting runners on second and third. Pinch-hitter Keller Riede then slapped a grounder to the first baseman, who chose to throw to the plate to nail Doyle. The throw went over the catcher's head, Doyle and Reutebuch scoring the tying and winning runs.

Accepts Tipton High Position; Successor Not Yet Named

Mr. Arthur Cosgrove, who has been head basketball coach at St. Joseph's for the last four years, recently resigned the position to accept the coaching job at Tipton high school, the Rev. Edward Roof, director of athletics, has announced.

As yet, no successor to Mr. Cosgrove has been named by the College Athletic Board.

Mr. Cosgrove, a graduate of Butler University, coached nine years of high school basketball before coming to Collegeville to take over the Puma squad. His high school basketball teams racked up 112 wins against 25 losses.

At St. Joseph's Mr. Cosgrove took over the reins in 1946 when the college reentered intercollegiate basketball competition after the war. With a green team he won eight and lost 11. In his four years here, his teams won 34 of 83 games played.

As cage mentor for St. Joe, Cosgrove was instrumental in building up the Puma's powerful hardwood schedule, which last year was a 22-game card, including such rivals as Duquesne, Rider, and the New York Athletic Club.

In addition to coaching at Tipton, the Puma ex-mentor will supervise recreational activities at the Tipton city park during the summers, taking up his duties on June 15.

Earlham Swamped By 8 Hitless Innings

Three first-inning runs provided the margin for the Pumas to enable them to defeat Earlham, 8-2, on the St. Joe diamond, May 12.

Right-hander Norb Hummel, who was credited with the win, shut out the Earlham batters during the four innings he was on the mound.

In the Puma first, a walk and a hit batsman put two on base, when Tom Quinn's grounder forced a runner at second but enabled the strolling Gerry Leahy to score on the play. Then Clarence Kuhn blasted a two-run homer deep into right field, in the slot between the foul line and Science Hall.

Wally Moore opened the fifth with a double, took third on an out and scored on a wild pitch. Then Tom Quinn walked, stole second and third, and scored on a fly to left.

In the sixth inning Leahy and Moore worked a double steal after each had walked, and then scored on Quinn's single.

Earlham scored their two runs in the seventh on a streak of wildness by pitcher Chuck McDermott. A single, three successive walks, and an infield out accounted for the runs.

Puma Golfers Whip Canterbury College

The Puma golfers pulled their record to three wins and three losses last May 12, with an 18-0 victory over Canterbury College. The match was played on the Curtis Creek country club links.

Charlie Gerst was low-scorer for St. Joe, going around the course with only 74 strokes.

COACH COSGROVE

Bohney's Single Beats State, 10-9

In a 10-inning slugfest May 15, the Puma baseball team avenged an earlier loss and captured their fifth straight win by downing Indiana State, 10-9.

Cy Bohney's tenth inning single with the bases loaded—his only hit of the day—decided the contest which was played on the local diamond.

Charlie Gorman went the distance for St. Joe, holding the Sycamores scoreless in the final three innings, after yielding five runs in the fifth. Three State pitchers faced the Pumas, with Galloway being charged with the loss.

The Sycamores proved adept in the extra-base department, hitting three home runs, four doubles and one triple. For St. Joe Bob Doyle belted a home run, Reid Mackin tripled, and Tom Quinn hit a double against Science Hall. Gerry Leahy and Doyle each collected three hits.

Two St. Joe runs in the second were matched by State in their fourth. The Pumas took a 4-2 lead in their half of the fourth, but the Sycamores tallied five runs in the fifth on a home run, two doubles, two singles, and a walk. Indiana added one run in each of the sixth and seventh innings.

In the sixth St. Joe scored four runs on Doyle's homer, two hits, and an error. The tying run came in the eighth when Mackin tripled and scored on Clarence Kuhn's infield out.

Both teams went scoreless in the ninth, and State's threat in the tenth died on second. In the bottom of the tenth Gorman led off with a single, Mackin walked, and Quinn was intentionally passed to load the bases with two out. Then Bohney hit his game-winning single through third.
